Cautions on handling

• Before turning the power switch on

Check once again that all connections are correct and that there are no problems with the connection cables.

- Power is supplied to some of the circuitry even when the unit is set to the standby mode. When going on vacation or leaving home for long periods of time, be sure to unplug the power cord from the power outlet.

• About condensation

If there is a major difference in temperature between the inside of the unit and its surroundings, condensation may form on parts inside the unit, causing it to fail to operate properly.

If this happens, let the unit sit for an hour or two with the power turned off and wait until there is little difference in temperature before using the unit.

• Cautions on using mobile phones

Using a mobile phone near this unit may result in noise. If that occurs, move the mobile phone away from the unit when it is in use.

• Moving the unit

Turn off the power and unplug the power cord from the power outlet. Next, disconnect the cables connected to other system units before moving the unit.

• Operable time for continuous use

This unit can be used continually for up to 24 hours. Continuing to use this unit for longer than 24 hours may result in operations failing to function correctly. To continue use for longer than 24 hours, restart the unit every 24 hours.

• Rack mount cautions (Required rack specifications for mounting the DN-700H on a rack)

- EIA Standard 19 inch rack
- 1U Size installation compatible rack
- Rack that has a guide rail or shelf board that can support this device

About this manual

□ Symbols

This symbol indicates a reference page on which related information is described.

This symbol indicates a supplementary information and tips for operations.

NOTE

This symbol indicates points to remember operations or function limitations.

Note that the illustrations in this manual may differ from the actual unit for explanation purposes.

Remote operation

About the remote control unit

□ Inserting the batteries

- ① Remove the rear cover of the remote control unit.
- ② Load the two batteries properly as indicated by the marks in the battery compartment.

- ③ Put the rear cover back on.

NOTE

- Insert the specified batteries in the remote control unit.
- Replace the batteries with new ones if the set does not operate even when the remote control unit is operated close to the unit. (The supplied batteries are only for verifying operation.)
- When inserting the batteries, be sure to do so in the proper direction, following the ⊕ and ⊖ marks in the battery compartment.
- To prevent damage or leakage of battery fluid:
 - Do not use a new battery together with an old one.
 - Do not use two different types of batteries.
 - Do not attempt to charge dry batteries.
- Do not short-circuit, disassemble, heat or dispose of batteries in flames.
- Do not keep the battery in a place exposed to direct sunlight or in places with extremely high temperatures, such as near a heater.
- If the battery fluid should leak, carefully wipe the fluid off the inside of the battery compartment and insert new batteries.
- Remove the batteries from the remote control unit if it will not be in use for long periods.
- Used batteries should be disposed of in accordance with the local regulations regarding battery disposal.
- The remote control unit may function improperly if rechargeable batteries are used.

□ Operating range of the remote control

Point the remote control unit at the remote sensor when operating it.

NOTE

The set may function improperly or the remote control unit may not operate if the remote control sensor is exposed to direct sunlight, strong artificial light from an inverter type fluorescent lamp or infrared light.

Connections

This section explains how to make connections for all of the supported audio signals.

NOTE

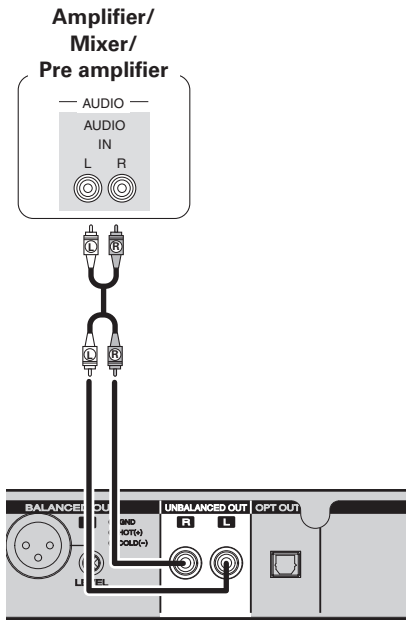

- Do not plug in the power cord until all connections have been completed.
- When making connections, also refer to the owner’s manual of the other components.
- Be sure to connect the left and right channels properly (left with left, right with right).
- Do not bundle power supply cords together with connection cables. Doing so can result in humming or noise.

Optical cable

NOTE

When the input source is "FM" or "AM", audio is not output from the digital out connector.

When connecting the optical digital output connector with an optical transmission cable (sold separately)

Match the shapes then insert firmly.

Connecting headphones

Connect the headphones to the headphone jack (PHONES).

When you press the headphone/front speaker volume adjustment switch (LEVEL), the switch will spring out. After adjusting the volume, press the switch back in again.

NOTE

To prevent hearing loss, do not raise the volume level excessively when using headphones.

Connecting an External control device

Connect an external control device or other device for servicing. (Use a RS-232C straight cable with a 9-pin D-sub connector for the connection.)

RS-232C control allows you to perform external control from the host. For details on RS-232C control, see "RS-232C control" (page 40).

Connecting an antenna

- You can listen to radio broadcasts by connecting the supplied FM antenna or AM loop antenna to the unit.
- After connecting the antenna and receiving a broadcast signal (see page 20 "Listening to FM/AM broadcasts"), fix the antenna with tape in a position where the noise level becomes minimal.
- When listening to radio stations, always make analog connections (see page 4 "Analog connections").

Direction of broadcasting station

AM loop antenna assembly

1 Put the stand section through the bottom of the loop antenna from the rear and bend it forward.

2 Insert the projecting part into the square hole in the stand.

Using the AM loop antenna

Suspending on a wall

Suspend directly on a wall without assembling.

Standing alone

Use the procedure shown above to assemble.

NOTE

- When the input source is "FM" or "AM", audio is not output from the digital out connector.
- Do not connect two FM antennas simultaneously.
- Even if an external AM antenna is used, do not disconnect the AM loop antenna.
- Make sure the AM loop antenna lead terminals do not touch metal parts of the panel.
- If the signal has noise interference, connect the ground terminal (GND) to reduce noise.
- If you are unable to receive a good broadcast signal, we recommend installing an outdoor antenna. For details, inquire at the retail store where you purchased the unit.

Connecting to a network (LAN)

- This unit lets you play via your network (LAN) music files stored on a computer and music content such as that from Internet radio.
- You can update by downloading the latest firmware from the D&M Professional website.
For more information, see “Firmware Update” (page 34).
- See “Network Setup [Network]” (page 29) for more information on network setting.

Cables used for connections

For connections to the Internet, contact an ISP (Internet Service Provider) or a computer shop.

Required system

❑ Broadband internet connection

❑ Modem

Device that connects to the broadband circuit and conducts communications on the Internet.

A type that is integrated with a router is also available.

❑ Router

When using this unit, we recommend you use a router equipped with the following functions:

- Built-in DHCP server

This function automatically assigns IP addresses on the LAN.

- Built-in 100BASE-TX switch

When connecting multiple devices, we recommend a switching hub with a speed of 100 Mbps or greater.

❑ PC

- Windows XP Service Pack2
- Windows Vista
- Windows 7
 - 1 GHz processor or higher (32 bit or 64 bit Intel or AMD processor etc.)
- Mac OS X (10.6 or later)

❑ NAS

- DLNA Server

❑ Ethernet cable (CAT-5 or greater recommended)

- Use only a shielded STP or ScTP LAN cable which is available at retailer.
- Some flat type Ethernet cables are easily affected by noise.
We recommend using a normal type cable.

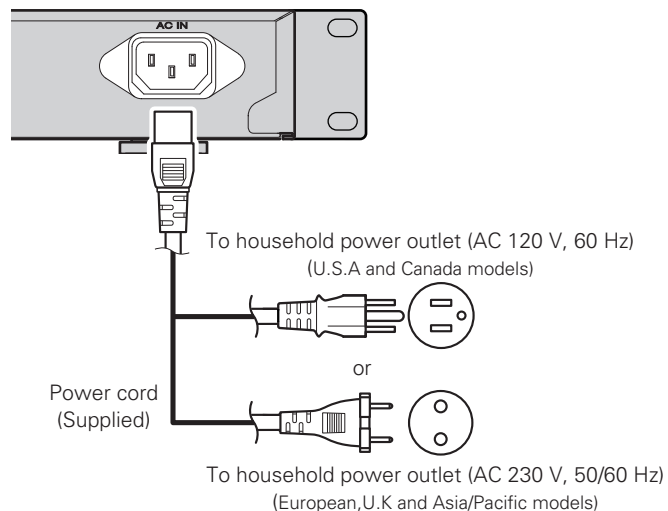

- If you have an Internet provider contract for a line on which network settings are made manually, make the settings at “Network connecting (when “DHCP” settings are “Off”)” (page 29).
- With this unit, it is possible to use the DHCP and Auto IP functions to make the network settings automatically.
- When using this unit with the broadband router’s DHCP function enabled, this unit automatically performs the IP address setting and other settings.
When using this unit connected to a network with no DHCP function, make the settings for the IP address, etc., at “Network connecting (when “DHCP” settings are “Off”)” (page 29).
- When setting manually, check the setting contents with the network administrator.

NOTE

- A contract with an ISP is required to connect to the Internet.
- No additional contract is needed if you already have a broadband connection to the Internet.
- The types of routers that can be used depend on the ISP. Contact an ISP or a computer shop for details.
- Depending on the condition of your Internet connection, the sound may cut out during playback, or operations may become unstable.
- D&M Professional assumes no responsibility whatsoever for any communication errors or troubles resulting from customer’s network environment or connected devices.
- This unit is not compatible with PPPoE. A PPPoE-compatible router is required if you have a contract for a type of line set by PPPoE.
- Do not connect an LAN connector directly to the LAN port/ Ethernet connector on your computer.
- To listen to audio streaming, use a router that supports audio streaming.
- If you cannot connect to Internet radio or a music server, your Internet connection may have network security restrictions. Contact your network administrator.

Connecting the power cord

When all of the connections are completed, insert the power plug into the power outlet.

NOTE

- Only use the supplied power cord.
- Be sure the power cord is unplugged from the power outlet before connecting or disconnecting it to the AC inlet.

When the microprocessor is reset, all the settings are reset to their default values.

- 1 Pull the power cord out of the power outlet.
- 2 Plug the power cord into a power outlet while pressing <SOURCE> and $\triangleleft \triangleright$ ENTER simultaneously.
- 3 5 seconds later, release the buttons.
"Initialized" appears in the display.

If "Initialized" does not display in step 3, start over from step 1.

Serial remote control function

In the Serial remote control function, a host such as a computer is connected to the unit. By sending control commands from the host to the unit, the unit can be operated, and the status information of the unit can be checked both on the unit and host. There are 2 methods for connecting the host and unit, namely RS-232C control and IP Control.

RS-232C control

You will be able to perform the three control functions from the host by connecting an RS-232C straight cable to the RS-232C serial terminal (9-pin D-sub) connector.

[Three control functions]

- ① Controlling and operating DN-700H from the host (☞page 41)
- ② Sending the status information to the host when DN-700H receives a status request command from the host (☞page 41)
- ③ Automatically sending the status information to the host when there is a change to the DN-700H status (☞page 41)

❑ Communication format

- Compatible Connector: 9-pin D-sub (male)
- Communication speed: 9,600 bps
- Data Bit: 8 bit
- Parity: None
- Stop Bit: 1 bit
- Flow Control: None

Pin Arrangement

Pin Number	Signal Name
1	Ground
6	NC
2	TxD
7	NC
3	RxD
8	NC
4	NC
9	NC
5	S. Ground

❑ Connections

IP Control (Ethernet)

You will be able to perform the three control functions from the host by connecting an ethernet cable to the ethernet connector (Connector type:RJ-45 (10BASE-T/100BASE-TX)).

❑ Communication format

- Communication system: A full duplex
- Communication speed: 10 Mbps/100 Mbps
- Communication port: TCP port 23 (telnet)
- Communication data length: 135 bytes (maximum)

❑ Connections

① Connecting the unit and host directly

② Connecting the unit and host via a hub

Communication protocol

The following three data forms are defined.

COMMAND

The message sent to a system from a host. A command to a system is given from a host. Refer to the following table for the contents of “Control command code table” (☞page 42).

RESPONSE

The message is sent to a host from a system if the ‘request command’ (COMMAND+?+CR(0x0D)) has come from a host. The RESPONSE should be sent within 200 ms of receiving the COMMAND. The form of RESPONSE presupposes that it is the same as that of EVENT. Refer to the following table for the contents of “Status request and status information code table” (☞page 44).

EVENT

The message sent to a host from a system. The result is sent, when a system is operated directly and a state changes. The form of EVENT presupposes that it is the same as that of COMMAND. Refer to the following table for the contents of “Event Status Command table” (☞page 45).

❑ Basic specification

The command by ASCII CODE, parameter expression

NOTE

ASCII CODE which can be used is from 0x20 to 0x7F: the alphabet and the number of 0-9, and space (0x20), some signs, and carriage return (0x0D) — It is used only as a pause sign.

Structure of Control Commands

Each packet of a control command begins with the COMMAND and ends with the End Character "0x0D" as shown below.

COMMAND: ASCII CODE of 2 characters

PARAMETER: ASCII CODE (up to 25 characters)

NOTE

To confirm the status information of the unit, send COMMAND + ? + CR to the unit from the host.

The unit status information is sent to the host.

For "Status request and status information code table" (page 44).

Structure of Command Codes

Item	Value (the hex value is indicated in parentheses)
Command	Indicate a description of the command.
Parameter	Indicate a description of the parameter.
End character	'CR'(0 x 0D)

The response time out is 200 msec.

- When a command is received, DN-700H responds within 200 msec.
- Allow an interval of at least 200 msec between commands when sending a series of commands from the host. DN-700H will not receive commands when the interval is less than 200 msec.
- COMMAND is receivable also during transmission of EVENT.
- Do not send request commands from the host until DN-700H returns a RESPONSE.
- 1 seconds later, please transmit the next COMMAND after transmitting a power on COMMAND (PWON).

① Controlling and operating DN-700H from the host

When DN-700H receives a control command from the host, the unit executes the command.

For "Control command code table" (page 42).

② Sending the status information for a status request command from the host

When DN-700H receives a status request command from the host, the unit responds the status information.

For "Status request and status information code table" (page 44).

③ Automatically sending the status information when there is a change to the DN-700H status

When there is a change to the DN-700H status, DN-700H automatically sends the status information to the host.

The commands used for sending status information are the same as the status information commands used for ②.

For "Status request and status information code table" (page 44).

DLNA

DLNA and DLNA CERTIFIED are trademarks and/or service marks of Digital Living Network Alliance. Some contents may not be compatible with other DLNA CERTIFIED™ products.

DRM

DRM stands for Digital Rights Management. It is a general term that describes technology or functions that are used to protect the copyright of digital content such as music and movies.

M

MP3 (MPEG Audio Layer-3)

This is an internationally standardized audio data compression scheme, using the "MPEG-1" video compression standard. It compresses the data volume to about one eleventh its original size while maintaining sound quality equivalent to a music CD.

MPEG (Moving Picture Experts Group), MPEG-2, MPEG-4

These are the names for digital compression format standards used for the encoding of video and audio. Video standards include "MPEG-1 Video", "MPEG-2 Video", "MPEG-4 Visual", "MPEG-4 AVC". Audio standards include "MPEG-1 Audio", "MPEG-2 Audio", "MPEG-4 AAC".

Sampling frequency

Sampling involves taking a reading of a sound wave (analog signal) at regular intervals and expressing the height of the wave at each reading in digitized format (producing a digital signal).

The number of readings taken in one second is called the "sampling frequency". The larger the value, the closer the reproduced sound is to the original.

Windows Media DRM

This is a copyright protection technology developed by Microsoft.

Content providers are using the digital rights management technology for Windows Media contained in this device (WM-DRM) to protect the integrity of their content (Secure Content) so that their intellectual property, including copyright, in such content is not misappropriated. This device uses WM-DRM software to play Secure Content (WM-DRM Software). If the security of the WM-DRM Software in this device has been compromised, owners of Secure Content (Secure Content Owners) may request that Microsoft revoke the WM-DRM Software's right to acquire new licenses to copy, display and/or play Secure Content. Revocation does not alter the WM-DRM Software's ability to play unprotected content.

A list of revoked WM-DRM Software is sent to your device whenever you download a license for Secure Content from the Internet or from a PC. Microsoft may, in conjunction with such license, also download revocation list onto your device on behalf of Secure Content Owners.

WMA data can be encoded using Windows Media® Player Ver.7, 7.1, Windows Media® Player for Windows® XP and Windows Media® Player 9 Series.

To encode WMA files, only use applications authorized by Microsoft Corporation. If you use an unauthorized application, the file may not work properly.
